

Materia Nova technology

The technology has been demonstrated for a composite layer made of bio-based thermoset resin reinforced with natural fibres and depolluting materials. It can be extended to other composite compositions.

Technology Market

Building, Design, Transport and Industrial markets that require multifunctional materials exhibiting properties of air depollution, protection against corrosion, against high temperature and fire ...

VOC

CO₂+H₂O